THE WORLD'S SERIES

By Frank G. Menke, International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—A careful analysis of the 1914 record of the pitchers who probably will work in the world series, shows that the Athletics quartet has an edge on the Boston trio in real pitching power. But the edge is one of only the merest fractions.

The analysis shows that while Bender and Plank have a higher strike out average per game than any of the Bostonians, James, of the Braves, has allowed fewer hits per game and Rudolph has given fewer bases on balls.

Records that merely show how many games a pitcher has won and lost during a season are valueless in attempting a comparison of pitching prowess. Some pitchers may be luckier than others. Some may pitch three-hit games, strike out a dozen men and allow a dozen bases and yet win. The striking average of the Boston trio is .596 against .585 for the Athletics quartet.

To find just what each pitcher has done on the fringe line statistics were gathered for the 1914 season, up to and including the game on Friday, Sept. 26th.

These figures later were reduced to show just how many batters each pitcher has struck out in an average nine-inning game, how many bases on balls and hits he allowed. Going farther, the figures were reduced to show just what the average nine-inning yield of hits, strikeouts and bases on balls has been from the Athletics quartet and Braves trio so far this season.

The result of the last figuring showed that the four Athletic pitchers as a whole have allowed 7.4 hits, given 2.5 bases on balls and struck out 4.5 men in each nine-inning game. In comparison, the Braves trio has allowed 4.4 hits, 2.5 bases on balls and struck out 4 men in each game.

The statistics show Rudolph is the steadiest of the seven pitchers. He has given only 1.25 bases on balls per game. Bender and Plank are tied for strikeout honors, with 5 per game. James, of the Braves, has permitted an average of only 7 hits per game—less than any of the other six.

Here are the figures. The first tables show the total number of games participated in this season by all the pitchers, total number of strikesouts, hits, bases on balls and innings pitched.

Athletic Pitchers.

Games	Won	Lost	Pct.
Bender	28	17	.620
Plank	34	15	.687
Bush	36	15	.705
Shawkey	36	16	.687

Composite average of Athletic pitchers, .585.

Braves Pitchers.

Games	Won	Lost	Pct.
James	44	25	.639
Rudolph	40	25	.615
Tyler	56	37	.600

Composite average Braves pitchers, .596.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATRE.

At the Butler this evening the programme will be one of unusual merit, showing four reels of very fine pictures, as follows: Hearts-Sell Weekly, showing interesting views from all over the world; Slippery Slim and the Fortune Teller, an Ekanay comedy with Margaret Joslin as Sophie Clark and Victor Postel as Slippery Slim, and a two-reel Edison comedy, The Stuff That Dreams Are Made Of. This is a burlesque melodrama in the true sense of the word. It carries a laugh in every foot of it, to a point of bringing tears to your eyes. Tomorrow—The Wilderness Mail, a two-reel Selig and Pathe Weekly Sunday—The Identification, a two-reel Kalem drama. Monday—The Violin of Monsieur, a two-reel Vitaphone drama, and a George Ade comedy—Adv.

MOWREY PIANO RECITAL.

This evening at Bartlett hall Mr. Dent Mowrey, the talented pianist, will give a recital that will undoubtedly prove a great treat to the music lovers of Tonopah who seldom have an opportunity for listening to the execution of the masterpieces, "Musical America," of New York, the great authority on the art, speaks of Mr. Mowrey as follows: "The young virtuoso played with great breadth of purpose and style, gave a number of his delightful compositions, including an 'Etude,' 'Serenade,' 'Humoresque' and 'Dance Eclectique.' The novelty of the concert, Dr. Mowrey's transcription of the Mozart Sonata proved highly interesting. The pianist, while cleverly amplifying the left hand part in his version for the second piano, has adhered in his work to the harmonic ideas common to the time of Mozart. Mr. and Mrs. Mowrey played the work deliciously."

Kossuth—Greatest of Hungarians

THIS noble lover of Liberty was to his beloved Hungary what Patrick Henry was to American Independence. Give me Liberty or give me death! meant to Kossuth all that made life worth the living. He lived for ninety-two years, and his long and honorable career was devoted solely to secure for Hungary National Independence. For it he suffered imprisonment and exile. For it he worked as few men have ever worked. His fiery soul was expressed in his writing, and his impassioned oratory thundered across the two continents. All the world read and listened to this high-souled Hungarian Patriot. When exiled our government sent the U.S. Steamer Mississippi to Turkey and brought him to our shores as the guest of the Nation. To-day we have millions of Hungarian citizens, the spirit and letter of our immortal Declaration of Independence. They make good citizens, and like Kossuth detest prohibitory enactments which make the many suffer for the faults of the very few. For centuries Hungarians have as a nation been moderate users of law. Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that—to those of brave Hungarian blood is insufferable tyranny. For 57 years Anheuser-Busch have been proud to serve their Hungarian patrons. They have helped to make the sales of their great brand Budweiser exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to keep pace with the public demand for Budweiser.
